DETAILED ACTION

This action is a response to applicant's amendment filed January 4, 2005.

Claims 1-20 have been cancelled. Claims 21-35 have been added.

Applicant's arguments filed with said amendment have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The claims as written still do not overcome the Hopkins reference because each of the structural limitations is disclosed therein. The pins 22 in Hopkins can be selectively remove at anytime by the user. Therefore, Hopkins also suggests this limitation.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

Claims 21-35 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. The above claims recite a clamp in combination with a human body part.

The examiner suggests the claims be amended substantially as follow to over this particular rejection.

An external incontinence clamp that is removably attachable to a penis for selectively controlling the discharge of urine through the penis, the incontinence clamp comprising:

a pair of clamping members each having opposed ends and a mid portion extending between the opposed ends, said pair of clamping members being arranged arrange able generally parallel and about said penis with said opposed ends extending extendable past the width of said penis and with said mid portion of each clamping member in contactable with said penis;

a pair of pins; and said pair of clamping members being secured together at said opposed ends by said pair of pins and about said penis to apply a predetermined clamping force to said penis to prevent the passage of urine therethrough, and one of said pins being selectively disengaged from one clamping member to allow the passage of urine through said penis and then being reengaged to prevent passage of urine.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 21, 27-31 and 35 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Hopkins (US Patent 4,458,681). The patent to Yoon disclose a clamping device having the following limitations:

- a first member 16 having opposed ends and a midsection;
- a second member 1 having opposed ends and a mid section;
- each of the ends having passages 36;
- slot 25.

Hopkins' device is capable of clamping a penis as recited in the claims above. Further, intended use has no limiting effect in this instance.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 22-26 and 32-34 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
